

Transition Support-FAQ's

- Can my child use the school bus on the induction day?
- Yes, students can use the school bus to and from Notre Dame-they will be supported on to the bus first at the end of the day
- What time are students in school on the induction day?
- 8.55-3.35
- What do students need to bring with them on the induction day?
- A rucksack with a packed lunch and water bottle-please contact us with regards to Free School Meals
- What can students wear on their induction day?
- Wear non-uniform and comfortable clothes. Please wear a full shoe that supports their foot as they will be moving around all day
- Who will my child be with on the induction day?
- This is when students will gather in their form groups for the first time. They will stay in these groups all day. When they arrive in school, they will be told who their form tutor is eg. 7CF and shown where to gather on the yard when the bell goes. There will be lots of staff and student volunteers to help.

Transition Support-FAQ's

- When will we know what house my child is in?
- On the induction day, students will find out their form group and also the house they are in. This information will also be available to parents in the evening of the induction day
- How do you decide what form group my child is in?
- We gather lots of information from the primary schools and information that parents share with us. Students joining from a non-feeder school will meet others on the shorter induction day for non-feeder students and will be able to name people that they have enjoyed getting to know during that afternoon
- When will I receive my log in details for My Child at School (MCAS)?
- Mid June, if you haven't received these by 2nd July, please contact sgiles@notredame-high.co.uk
- What if my child speaks French or Spanish at home?
- Please contact sgiles@notredame-high.co.uk - if you would like them to study a particular language
- When will my child receive their timetable?
- On September 3rd alongside their Notre Dame journal. Their form tutor will go through this with them
